What Is Flip and How Can You Make Money With It?

Make a Quick $30 on Flip

What if TikTok paid you to talk about stuff you already use and love? That's basically what Flip does—and yes, it's legit. It's a shopping-based social app where users post video reviews of products, and you can earn real money doing it. Plus, when you sign up with my referral link, we both get $30.

Whether you're into skincare, kitchen gadgets, tech, or random Amazon finds, Flip gives you a platform to be both helpful and profitable.
